

To members of the FCC:

I have been listening to satellite radio for several years...I think I was one of the first subscribers. We love the variety it provides and you can't beat the signal when traveling. I don't think anyone should be able to control the content of what I listen to. I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160 and allow XM radio to give me the programming I want.